

Save the date

Themes in Neurorehabilitation: Cerebral Palsy Across the Lifespan

Presented by Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute and Kinetic Connections
Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions • Baltimore, Maryland

November 5 – 6, 2010

Learn about the current best evidence-based practices for the treatment of medical, rehabilitative and psychosocial conditions that may occur in individuals with cerebral palsy at each state of life.

Registration information available in mid-May at www.resourcefinder.kennedykrieger.org

Keynote Speakers:

Janice Brunstrom-Hernandez, MD, Director, Pediatric Neurology Cerebral Palsy Center,
St. Louis Children's Hospital

Mindy Aisen, MD, CEO, Cerebral Palsy International Research Foundation

Conference Sessions:

NOVEMBER 5

- Augmentative Communication Strategies
- Coping with a New Diagnosis/Accessing Care
- Education Issues
- Neuroimaging as a Guide to Diagnosis
- Nutrition/Feeding
- Strategic Planning for Therapeutic Interventions

NOVEMBER 6

- Community Integration/Socialization
- Disability & Sexuality
- Quality of Life
- Transition Issues
- Wellness/Medicine/Aging

Who Should Attend:

Community program coordinators, counselors, educators, nurses, nutritionists/dietitians, occupational therapists, parents and individuals with disabilities, physical therapists, psychologists, social workers, and speech & language pathologists.

Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute

Maximizing Potential. Creating Change.