

Continuing Education Credits AVAILABLE

A Woman's Journey

Johns Hopkins Medicine's highly acclaimed annual women's health conference

Saturday November 14, 2009

8:15 a.m. – 4:15 p.m.

The Hilton Baltimore Hotel

This not-to-be-missed one day conference attracts nearly 1,000 registrants yearly and offers a unique day of learning about recent medical breakthroughs from renowned Johns Hopkins faculty physicians and faculty. Attend a plenary session, luncheon, and four seminars of your choosing. Johns Hopkins physicians will present 32 diverse topics including:

Integrating Traditional Healing with Modern Medicine

The Risk of Cancer: You Are What You Eat

Preserving Your Memory

Autoimmune ALERT

Antioxidants, Vitamins and Supplements

Top 10 Infections for 2009

Coping with Stress

New Advances in Treating Breast Cancer

Successful Aging

Exercise to Stay Healthy

Earn continuing education credits from:

- American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT);
- Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists (BPCT);
- Commission for Case Manager Certification (CCMC);
- Maryland Board of Pharmacy (PHARMA);
- Maryland Dietetic Association (MDA);
- Maryland Nurses Association (MNA);
- National Association of Social Workers (NASW);
- National Commission for Health Education Credentialing (NCHEC);
- National Sports Professional Association (NSPA);
- Oncology Nursing Society (ONS).

Conference registration for the general public is $95, $85.50 for Johns Hopkins Employees, and $75.00 for students (with valid ID).

REGISTER NOW!

To learn more about the conference, continuing education credits, or to register online

visit the conference website: www.hopkinsmedicine.org/awomansjourney or call A Woman's Journey at 410-955-8660

