

CMSA of the Chesapeake Mini Fall Conference 2022

October 22, 2022

8:00am(registration); 8:30am-1:00pm

Location: The Maritime Conference Center

OFFERING 3 CCM and SW CEUs (including 1 ethics CEU pending)

SPEAKERS:

Laura Ostrowsky, RN, CCM– The Code of Professional Conduct: Your GPS for navigating the Care Continuum, Resolving Conflicts, and Providing Ethical Care (1 Ethics CEU Pending)

Objectives: Be able to reconcile perceived conflicts in roles and responsibilities.

Understand how the code of professional conduct can guide you in decision making.

Be able to cite and use the ethical principles of CM to promote safe and appropriate patient care planning.

Celinda Carr LCSW-C, CCM & Alyssa Stoffel, MS, BSN, RN, CPN, CCM– The Coordinating Center- Transitioning to Adulthood for Medically Complex Youth (1 CEU Pending)

Objectives: Recognize the differences between pediatric and adult healthcare and when the transitioning youth process should begin.

Identify components of the transitioning youth process, in addition to health care.

Learn how Social Work Case Managers and Nurse Case Managers can empower youth and their caregivers toward achieving optimal health and wellness throughout the transitioning youth process.

Integrate a transitioning youth assessment into your current practice.

Gayle Von Seggern, Patient Advocate– Erythropoietic Protoporphyria (EPP) Journey for Diagnosis to Treatment with Panel discussion

(1 CEU Pending)

Objectives: Expand the knowledge of Erythropoietic Protoporphyria (EPP) to health care professionals and insurers

Review counseling needs of EPP patients and how to best assist with gaining access to treatment and insurance coverage

Empower CM's to advocate for persons with rare diseases and their advocates

Round table discussion on wholistic care coordination needs for patients and their caregivers

